

THIS DOCUMENT IS IMPORTANT AND REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

Dear Shareholder,

This is an invitation to tender your equity shares in Bosch Chassis Systems India Limited (“the Company”) to Robert Bosch GmbH (“Acquirer”) at an exit price of Rs. 600/- per equity share subject to the terms and conditions below (“Exit Offer”).

By a public announcement dated July 17, 2008 and bid letter dated July 18, 2008, the Acquirer made an offer (“Delisting Offer”) to shareholders holding fully paid-up equity shares in the Company (“Shares”) to acquire their Shares in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Securities) Guidelines, 2003 (“Delisting Guidelines”). The Acquirer accepted the price of Rs. 600/- per Share (“Exit Price”) determined under the reverse book-building process as per the Delisting Guidelines vide public announcement dated August 12, 2008 and the settlement with the tendering shareholders was completed on September 10, 2008. After acquisition of the Shares as aforesaid, the equity shareholding of the Acquirer in the Company currently stands at 95.87%.

Following the above acquisition and in accordance with the Delisting Guidelines, the Company applied for delisting to the stock exchanges on which its Shares were listed, namely, Bombay Stock Exchange Limited (“BSE”) and National Stock Exchange of India Limited (“NSE”) (collectively the “Stock Exchanges”). Both BSE and NSE have approved the delisting of the Shares with effect from November 7, 2008.

Delisting of the Shares from the Stock Exchanges implies that the Shares cannot be traded on the Stock Exchanges and a liquid market for trading of the Shares will no longer be available.

We are writing to inform you that, in accordance with Clause 8.5 of the Delisting Guidelines, the Acquirer hereby provides a final exit opportunity to shareholders holding Shares in the Company (“Residual Shareholder”), for a period of six months, to participate in the acquisition process. You will be able to tender your Shares to the Acquirer at the Exit Price at any time from November 7, 2008 till May 6, 2009 (“Exit Period”), on the terms and subject to the conditions set out in this letter of offer (“Letter of Offer”) and the public announcement dated November 7, 2008 (“Public Announcement”).

1.4 The Letter of Offer and the Application Form can also be downloaded from the website www.boschindia.com or by sending an email request to bosch.delisting@intimespectrum.com

2. NON RESIDENT SHAREHOLDERS

2.1 Residual Shareholders who are non-resident Indians (“NRI”), persons resident outside India, overseas corporate bodies (“OCB”), Foreign Institutional Investors (“FII”) (together “Non-Resident Residual Shareholders”), will also need to enclose a copy of the original permission received by them from the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) in relation to the acquisition of the Shares and also:

- (a) If the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder’s Shares in the Company are held on a repatriation basis, the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder must obtain and enclose with the Application Form, a letter from his/her/their authorized dealer/bank confirming that at the time of the acquisition of such Shares, payment for the same was made by the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder from the appropriate account (e.g. NRE a/c) as specified by RBI in its approval.
- (b) If the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder is not in a position to produce the letter referred to in clause 2.1(a) above, his/her/their equity shares will be deemed to have been acquired on a non-repatriation basis and in such a case, the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder must submit a consent letter addressed to the Acquirer, allowing the Acquirer to make the payment on a non-repatriation basis in respect of such Shares tendered in the Exit Offer.
- (c) Non-Resident Residual Shareholders should also enclose copies of any other statutory/legal/corporate approvals as may be applicable.

2.2 If any of the documents referred to in paragraph 2.1 above are not enclosed along with the Non-Resident Residual Shareholder’s Application Form, such Non-Resident Residual Shareholder’s tender of Shares under the Exit Offer may be treated as invalid.

3. SETTLEMENT

3.1 Following fulfillment of the conditions mentioned herein and in the Public Announcement and receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals (if any), the applicable consideration will be paid by the Acquirer by way of pay order or demand draft and will be dispatched as soon as reasonably practical and in any case, no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the necessary documentation for tendering the Shares by the Registrar and the receipt of Shares in the Special Depository Account or the date when the relevant regulatory approvals (if any), are obtained (“Receipt Date”) to the relevant Residual Shareholders, at their own risk, by way of registered post or UCP at the address set out in Box 1 of the accompanying Application Form.

3.2 The pay order/demand draft will be drawn in the name of the sole or first named shareholder (in case of joint holdings) described in Box 1 of the Application Form along with the bank account number as provided in Box 5 of the Application Form. In case bank account details are not provided, then the consideration will be paid to the sole or first named holder (at your own risk) without any such details.

4. PERIOD

The Residual Shareholders may tender their application to the Registrar at the Exit Price at any time during the Exit Period. The Residual Shareholders are required to ensure that their Application Form, together with the necessary enclosures, is received by the Registrar before May 6, 2009.

5. STATUTORY AND OTHER APPROVALS

- 5.1 The RBI vide its letter no. FE.CO.FID.3741/10.21.092/2008-09 dated August 5, 2008 has granted its approval to the Acquirer to acquire upto 4,158,906 Shares from the public shareholders of the Company, including NRIs under the Delisting Offer in accordance with the Delisting Guidelines. However, in case of Shares tendered by OCBs, the Acquirer would be required to take specific prior approval of the RBI prior to acquisition of the Shares tendered by such OCBs. To the best of the Acquirer's knowledge, as on date, there are no other statutory or regulatory approvals required to acquire the Shares. If any other statutory or regulatory approvals need to be obtained, the acquisition of Shares by the Acquirer will be subject to such statutory or regulatory approvals.
- 5.2 The Acquirer reserves the right not to proceed with the acquisition of the Shares in the event the approval(s), if any, is/are not obtained, or conditions which the Acquirer considers in its sole discretion to be onerous are imposed in respect of such approval(s).
- 5.3 It shall be the responsibility of the Residual Shareholders tendering in the Exit Offer to obtain all requisite approvals (including corporate, statutory or regulatory approvals), if any, prior to tendering in the Exit Offer, and the Acquirer shall take no responsibility for the same. The Residual Shareholders should attach a copy of any such approval to the Application Form, wherever applicable.

6. TAX TO BE DEDUCTED AT SOURCE

- 6.1 As per the provisions of Section 195(1) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 ("IT Act"), any person responsible for paying to a non-resident any sum chargeable to tax is required to deduct tax at source (including surcharge and education cess, as applicable). Since the consideration payable under the Delisting Offer would be chargeable to capital gains under Section 45 of the IT Act or as business profits as the case may be, the Acquirer will need to deduct tax at source (including surcharge and education cess) at the applicable tax rate on the gross consideration payable to the following categories of Residual Shareholders, as given below:

- NRIs: The Acquirer will deduct tax at source at the rate of 30% on the gross proceeds in case of short-term capital gains or business profits, and at the rate of 20% in case of long-term capital gains. However, where the Shares have been acquired/purchased with or subscribed to in convertible foreign exchange and the Residual Shareholder produces necessary evidence to this effect, then the tax will be deducted at the rate of 10% on the gross proceeds in case of long-term capital gains. In the event that the aforesaid amount of gross proceeds exceeds Rs.1,000,000/- the aforesaid rate will be increased by a surcharge of 10% of the tax sum.

The aforesaid amount of tax inclusive of surcharge where applicable, will be further increased by an education cess of 3%.

- OCBs / Non-domestic companies: The Acquirer will deduct tax at source at the rate of 40% on the gross proceeds in the case of short-term capital gains or business profits, and at the rate of 20% on the gross proceeds in the case of long-term capital gains. In the event that the aforesaid amount of gross proceeds exceeds Rs.10,000,000/- the aforesaid rate will be increased by a surcharge of 2.5% of the tax sum

The aforesaid amount of tax inclusive of surcharge where applicable, will be further increased by an education cess of 3%.

- *FII*s : As per the provisions of Section 196D(2) of the IT Act, no deduction of tax at source shall be made from any income by way of capital gains arising from the transfer of shares, payable to a FII.

FII should certify their residential status with appropriate evidence in the Application Form along with the fact whether the Shares are held by them on investment/capital account or on trade account.

If the Shares are held on trade account or if the FII fails to certify in the Application Form that the Shares are held by it on investment/capital account, then the Acquirer will deduct tax at source from the gross proceeds at the rate of 42.23% (tax rate of 40% plus surcharge of 2.5% and education cess of 3% on tax and surcharge) in case of a corporate FII Residual Shareholder to whom payment to be made exceeds Rs. 10,000,000/-; 41.2% (tax rate of 40% plus education cess of 3% thereon) in case of corporate FII Residual Shareholder to whom payment to be made does not exceed Rs. 10,000,000/-; 33.99% (tax rate of 30% plus surcharge of 10% and education cess of 3% on tax and surcharge) in case of individual or trust FII Residual Shareholder to whom the payment to be made exceeds Rs. 1,000,000; or 30.90% (tax rate of 30% plus education cess of 3% thereon) in case of individual or trust FII Residual Shareholder to whom the payment to be made does not exceed Rs 1,000,000.

- Non-Resident Shareholders other than, NRIs, FIIs, non-domestic companies and OCBs ("Other NR Persons"): The Acquirer will deduct tax at source at the rate of 30% on the gross proceeds in the case of short-term capital gains or business profits, and at the rate of 20% on the gross proceeds in the case of long-term capital gains. In the event that the aforesaid amount exceeds Rs 1,000,000/- the aforesaid rate will be increased by a surcharge of 10% of the tax sum.

The aforesaid amount of tax inclusive of surcharge where applicable, will be further increased by an education cess of 3% of the tax sum.

NRI/OCB/Non-domestic companies/Other NR Persons should certify their residential status in the Application Form along with the fact whether the Shares are held by them on investment / capital account or on trade account and whether the investment are held as long- term capital asset or short-term capital asset (with appropriate evidences). If the NRI/OCB/Non-domestic companies / Other NR Persons fail to certify the details as required in the Application Form, then the Acquirer will deduct tax at the rate applicable to business income.

- Resident Shareholders: No tax will be deducted at source on payment of gross proceeds to Indian Residual Shareholders.

6.2 In the event the aforementioned categories of Residual Shareholders require the Acquirer not to deduct tax or to deduct tax at a lower rate or on a lower amount, they would need to obtain an order from the income tax authorities either under Section 195(3) or under Section 197 of the IT Act as applicable, and submit the same to the Acquirer while submitting the Application Form. In the absence of any such certificate from the income tax authorities, the Acquirer will deduct tax as aforesaid. However, in certain specific cases, after taking into account the tax advice obtained by the Acquirer, the Acquirer may, at its sole discretion, waive the aforesaid requirement or request for further documents from the Residual Shareholders.

6.3 For the purpose of determining as to whether the capital gains are short-term or long-term in nature, the Acquirer shall take the following actions based on the information obtained from the Company:

- In case of Physical Shares that are registered with the Company, the date of registration of the Shares with the Company shall be taken as the date of acquisition.
- In case of Physical Shares which are not registered with the Company, the capital gain shall be assumed to be short-term in nature.
- In case of dematerialized Shares, the date of credit of shares to the Residual Shareholder's demat account shall be taken as the date of acquisition.
- In case of unavailability of information with the Company/Acquirer or any ambiguous, incomplete or conflicting information, the capital gain shall be assumed to be short-term in nature.

6.4 Residual Shareholders are advised to consult their tax advisors for the treatment that may be given by their respective assessing officers in their case, and the appropriate course of action that they should take. The Acquirer and the Registrar do not accept any responsibility for the accuracy or otherwise of such advice.
